Re: CWMH SOCIAL NETWORKING POLICY

---

Please be advised that the Centre Wellington Minor hockey Association has recently adopted the following position regarding social networking as it pertains to CWMHA business. The policy clearly outlines expectations for social media use and will become part of CWMHA's Rules of Operation.

“Social Networking is defined as communicating through online communities of people such as but not limited to Facebook, Twitter, YouTube or any sort of blogging. CWMH understands the importance of social networking and recognizes its use and place within the public interest. However, CWMH is very aware of the potential misuse and inappropriate conduct which may be destructive to the welfare of CWMH membership. CWMH holds the entire membership including Executive, Players, Parents ,Guardians, Coaches, Trainers, Managers, On/Off Ice Officials, and any others who participate in any other form of SOCIAL NETWORKING to the same standard as it would for all forms of media. Inappropriate conduct exhibited through SOCIAL NETWORKING media will not be tolerated and and may result in disciplinary action being taken against all involved by CWMHA.”

Sincerely,
CWMHA Executive
